

Author Talk and Book Signing
with Lisa Fithian
Friday, October 4, 2019
6:30 pm

The Library at the
AJ Williams-Myers
African Roots Center
43 Gill Street, Kingston NY

Lisa Fithian is an anti-racist organizer and social justice activist. Described by Mother Jones as “the nation’s best-known protest consultant,” she has helped organize countless uprisings including the Battle of Seattle in 1999, defending communities after Hurricane Katrina, Occupy Wall Street, Standing Rock, and Ferguson.

Fithian’s book, “Shut It Down: Stories from a Fierce, Loving Resistance,” is a veteran activist’s guide to direct action and strategic civil disobedience as the most radical and rapid means to social change.

Following the talk, signed copies of the book will be available for sale.

The event is free. Seating is limited. Register at <http://bit.ly/Fithian>.

Cosponsors

AJ Williams-Myers African Roots Center | Dutchess County Progressive Action Alliance
ENJAN (End the New Jim Crow Action Network) | Freedom Flotilla Coalition | Hudson Valley BDS
Jewish Voice for Peace-HV | La Voz con Mariel Fiori | Middle East Crisis Response
Rise Up Kingston | Veterans For Peace-Catskill Mountains | We Will Not Be Silent | Women in Black-New Paltz